Docket No.: ZIL-308-1C

Amendments to the Specification:

Please amend the paragraph beginning on page 7, line 4, as follows:

The reader should note that we discuss the Ir communications 14 as such in the interest of simplicity. [[- i]]It should be understood that Ir communications 14 may be possible between a certain pair if of appliances even if the app sets do not match. However, since the app sets may not “understand” one another, some or all of the desired functionality might be lost or may produce erroneous operations.
